Finally, a book that explains exactly how consciousness, life Experience, and the physical Universe itself are fractalic in nature. Rather than simply asserting that the universe must be a fractal, this book actually tells you what the iteration is that produces the panfractalic (physical universe), how you iterate experience yourself every day in your own consciousness, and what it means to you in life Experience practical terms. Also presented is the information on how this understanding can be utilized to advance self-development towards Awareness and enlightenment. With illustrations and extensive explanations, this guide will revolutionize the understanding of spiritual practice and Path, and presents an astonishing new model of the human energetic system, the structure of the time-space universe (and beyond), and the nature of the infinite Void.
