The White Rose: In the President's Service: Book 12 (Volume 12) Ace Collins

Two women, two cases, and a bloody white rose ... Helen Meeker has been moved Chicago against her will and given a partner she does not trust. The pair face two disparate cases. The first requires saving an innocent man from execution and the second sees Helen employ a bizarre trap to bring Fredrick Bauer out of hiding. In this action/adventure/whodunit, Helen and her new partner, Teresa Bryant, form an uneasy alliance as they face assassination attempts, a baffling mystery concerning a bank robbery and the murder of a guard, and the challenge of decoding a book containing information the Nazis can't afford to have to come to light. The White Rose takes readers into the confines of Wrigley Field, the world of high society and into the darkness of organized crime as Helen interacts with legendary figures from history and the most diabolical criminal masterminds of 1942.
