17000 Syllables: A Haiku Book Huy Pham

With the use of the micro-blogging network Twitter, Poet Huy Pham publishes a body of more than a thousand haiku over the past year. In understanding that traditional haiku poetry consists of three verses with five, seven, and five syllables respectively, he believes that the seventeen syllable breath verbalizes perfect phrases. Enjoy this collection of thoughts regarding arrogant love, self-deprecation and growth, out-lashing against society, extremely subtle pop culture references, metaphors to nature, and human curiosity - with one haiku at a time.
