Danny and the Dentist Jessica Dally Bertrand

All afternoon, Danny kept picturing a crazy man in a lab coat, his tail swishing back and forth, clicking pliers in his hands. At two o'clock, Danny's name was called over the loud speaker. He was being checked out early. This could only mean one thing it was time for the dentist. Join Danny the alligator as he faces his fears of the dentist and discovers that there was nothing to fear in the first place!
