Dublin is a wonderful place to live and work. Experience this through the eyes of Donal, a wannabe Irish man. He loved the place so much that he moved here, from London, in the middle of the recession hit 1980's. Working for an IT multinational company, he's trying to sell computers to Dubliners. That's not easy. If he doesn't close a big deal with his customer, the bank, by the end of the year he'll be on the boat back home. You'll meet Harry, the sales director, who should have been born two hundred years ago. Then there's Nicky, the sultry marketing manager. Proceed with caution here. Try not to bump into Mannix, the sales manager. He's rather clumsy and shy. Mairead is the smouldering Sales Prevention Officer. Be sure to stay on the right side of her. She could make things difficult for you. Try to avoid negotiating with Len, the bank's procurement chief. It's not a pleasant experience. If you fancy a night out in Dublin then take Terry with you. He's the IT Director. He likes to be entertained. Be careful not to be mesmerized by Samantha, the bank's beautiful Finance Director. She's really cool. Will Donal achieve his longed for Irishness? Will he close that sale? How will Nicky harness her sultriness for the greater good of society? Will Mannix overcome his inter-personal ineptitude? Will Mairead finally reveal the inner passionate woman? Will Terry get rid of Len? Will Harry get it together with Samantha? If humour be the food of life - read on!
