For even the most seasoned practitioner, effectively navigating the Bankruptcy Code and Rules has long presented unique challenges. Today, the balance of power between debtor and creditor requires greater know-how than ever before. With this latest edition of Creditors' Rights in Chapter 11 Cases, you have the advantage once again. Inside this book you'll discover practice tips and litigation strategies from leaders of some of the nation's leading law firms. The authors in this book:

Guide you through recent caselaw and legislative developments that will help develop arguments and frame upcoming negotiations;
Provide best practices that generate maximum recovery for your creditor clients;
Explain the effect of "pre-negotiated and pre-packaged" bankruptcy filings and their impact on creditors; and Discuss state and federal receiverships as an alternative to Chapter 11 of the United States Bankruptcy Code;
Outline the complexity of bankruptcy court jurisdiction that creates impediments to efficient and economical reorganization under the Bankruptcy Code.

This edition has been updated to reflect the latest thinking in creditor representation and shines a light on future trends that every creditor must continually monitor.

Inside the Minds provides readers with proven business and legal intelligence from leading C-Level executives and lawyers. Each chapter offers thought leadership and expert analysis on an industry, profession, or topic, providing a future-oriented perspective and proven strategies for success. Each author has been selected based on their experience and C-Level standing within the business and legal communities.
