On Wives Saul B. Frank

An analysis (for men) of making or not making the largest investment of your life. Saul B. Frank, ghostwriter of Your Wife by Dominic Milan, presents his latest work for your review. Saul wrote On Wives with the astute American man in mind. On Wives is designed to be an affordable, concentrated analysis of marriage in 21st century America. Evaluated through analogies and parallels to investing and financial markets, Saul covers tactics from the traditional to the contrarian using the terminology of buy-and-hold, derivatives, junk bonds, diminishing values, hedging and so forth. On Wives is robust in content, but a highly portable reference for men considering marriage in modern America. Some investments are riskier than others and certainly some investments lie in wait to take a big chunk out of your ass if you aren't careful. Saul posits that women are, perhaps, what should be the most scrutinized investment men will ever make in their lives for this reason. While Saul doesn't completely admonish traditional motivators for marriage, he does describe the manner in which proper analysis should be conducted and unveils alternative strategies for women, as an investment, and how to properly 'hedge' against adverse outcomes. If you appreciate Saul's assessment, make sure you gift this must-read to any man considering marriage needing a concentrated, realist's perspective on the situation.
