"A Singular Vision: The Art of Fred Williams" looks at the life work of an artist regarded by many as one of Australia's greatest modern landscape painters. This study pays close attention to the development of Williams's oils, gouaches and prints. It also chronicles his life from his early days at the National Gallery of Victorian Art School to his successful career as an established artist. The book attempts to capture Williams's spirit and personality by making use of the artist's personal diaries and contemporary interviews.
