Approach Graduate School Of Architecture & Urban Design edited

A publication of the Graduate School of Architecture & Urban Design at the Washington University in St. Louis, this volume offers a comprehensive overview of recent work by students, as well as concepts and projects by professors, assistant professors, and other faculty. With challenging forms and innovative ideas for current and future approaches to a variety of typologies and programmes, the richly illustrated information presented here reflects the inspirations, ambitions, and trajectories of the school as a whole, essentially operating as a catalogue to attract new thinkers and designers in the fields of architecture, urbanism, and landscape design.
