Call of the Loon [With DVD] David Evers, Kate M. Taylor

The common loon is a graceful and reclusive bird whose eerie, tremolo call is said to capture the spirit of the wild.

Call of the Loon offers a stunning, full-color life history of this gorgeous animal while unveiling its mysteries via a unique question-and-answer format authored by two leading experts on loon biology.

Both casual and professional natural historians will benefit from this highly informative yet browsy and accessible volume.

Packaged with the book is a unique DVD that features the video footage gathered by the BioDiversity Research Institute.

Their “loon cam” has captured exceptional footage of loon nest building, mating, egg hatching, and chick rearing.

Along with the breathtaking images, viewers will hear the haunting calls of these beautiful birds.
