From St. Francis to Giotto: The Influence of St. Francis on Early Italian Art and Literature Vincent Moleta

From St. Francis to Giotto brings together and reconsiders some of the most familiar expressions of Early Franciscan culture. The author's aim was to show St. Francis through the eyes of Italian writers and painters active during the century that followed his death and to outline his place in the native culture that flowered in Italy from the mid-thirteenth to mid-fourteenth centuries.
