The Meaning of the "Number" of the Antichrist David B. Waterfill

"Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man; and his number is six hundred threescore and six."

Interest in end-time biblical prophesy, particularly this Rev. 13:18 passage, soared in the latter days of the twentieth century, and books, articles, and movies that offer new insights into the subject continue to find an audience today.

Joining the ranks of this popular literature is The Meaning of the "Numbers" of the Antichrist, which offers both an unusual and unexpected interpretation of the number of the beast. This quick journey into man's ancient past reveals insightful clues for interpreting this mysterious Bible passage and understanding the spiritual significance attached to historic people and events.
