Poets of Madison County Stacy Savage

The "Poets of Madison County" anthology spans the work of 65 local contemporary poets including a few of our poets who have passed. Their voices give thought to our rich cultural identity. From Jared Carter's "Heroes and Heroines" to Glenna Glee's "These Golden Years", each poet uniquely represents the county's poetic talent. The poems are moving in spirit, embedded in richness and tradition, and a delight to read! "The poetry in Poets of Madison County is fresh and vivid, full of imagery, imagination, and song. They pull you in and keep you reading from beginning to end. A great read!" CN Hueston, Musician
