Torn. One will break her trust - One will break her heart - One will kill for her. When Sky's parents moved from San Francisco to Boulder City in Nevada, she thought her life was over, until she met the Hudson boys. Two years older than her, tattooed bad boy Nate was confident, cocky, good looking, and a straight talker. He was the unattainable guy that all the girls wanted, but the one their fathers warned them to steer clear of. Josh had all of his brother's looks, but he was the sweet charmer your mother would beg you to marry. Their cousin Billy lacked the brothers' good looks, so relied on his quick wit to attract the girls. When all three of them set their sights on Sky, they became competitive, and cracks in their close bond began to form. Torn between her loyalty to all three, and feelings for one, Sky was faced with a dilemma. When she made her decision, she had no idea that her choice would set them all on a path that would tear the group apart. Torn is a standalone new adult erotic romance novel, which is heavy on the angst. Tissues may be required!
