Love Letters To The Lunar Surface M. Mackintosh

A beautifully strange collection of 42 poems of unrelenting love and devotion to an unknown woman the author simply refers to as E.G.G. Within you'll find the magic, wonder and sheer agony that attends true love, captured. A genuine sense of raw humanity that is at once pressing, soothing, heart breaking, and hopeful, while moving the reader towards the envisioned dreamscape the writer so desperately wishes to coexist in with his beloved. By the end, one will find themselves with more questions asked than answered. Who is this mysterious woman? And who is the ethereal and terrifying White Lady that keeps reappearing to guide the author throughout these complex and incredibly odd pieces? Love Letters to the Lunar Surface is a journey through life, love, and death and is nothing short of semantical sorcery.
