Eight months pregnant and a bridesmaid isn't midwife Georgia Winton's ideal situation...and it just got worse! When her contractions begin during the wedding ceremony, the only person who can save her and her baby is the groom? gorgeous, dedicated consultant Max Beresford. Together they save the life of little baby Elsa, and neither could be more thrilled.

What will Max do now? His planned marriage of convenience never happened, because he didn't say "I do," and Georgia and her little girl have stolen his heart. Georgia is also in trouble, and she needs a protector—a role Max is happy to take on. But he wants to be more than that. He wants to be a real husband and father this time.
