Help your students learn the social skills that comprise The Well-Managed Classroom curriculum by displaying these large, colorful 11" by 17" posters in your classroom. These 16 posters are great visual reminders as children are learning to get along with others and improve their classroom behavior. Laminate them for durability. Customize them with a dry erase marker. Organize classroom activities around them. Posters include these skills: following instructions, accepting "No", accepting criticism, greeting others, getting the teacher's attention, saying you're sorry, disagreeing, accepting compliments, talking with others, asking for help, asking permission, staying on task, sharing with others, working with others, listening, and using a nice voice tone.
