Jennifer James is your everyday brainy, unpopular girl. When a reality TV show chooses her school as the subject of a new show, Jennifer is surprised to be chosen as a participant. The grand prize is entry into the elite St. Willibald's College, and Jennifer's determined to win. But it's not so easy, especially when there are the complications of:

- a blonde bombshell rival
- a combative feminist mother
- a distracting love interest and the prospect of a first snog
- and, above all, a lack of talents required to win the public's vote!

Teen readers will devour this hilarious diary–style exposé about reality TV and one girl's struggle to figure out herself.
