"A girl has a magnetic field that draws unknowingly. A tainted gravity draws what it will and deserve it." Jessica Orr, a new poet and survivor of sexual abuse and other acts during her childhood, wrote this collections of poems as both therapy and a signal to herself she is alive, a good person and that god, love and beauty exists and will always exist, regardless of the never ending evil upon our earth. This 8 chapter poetry book spans things better left forgotten to the amazing feelings of love! Life is wonderful and no matter one's past or thoughts of such, god and that spirit of goodness will rise and cradle those of good temperament and who try to live a good life in our sometimes crazy society.
