Past Eras Awaken I (Millennium) (v. 1) Krishna Nahome Cassandra
Scenes unfold before the eye of one who reads from the Book of Life.

Many seekers search for the true life of past prophets and spiritual leaders and here they will find a volume that speaks to the spiritual need of human beings for a deeper connection with the Light.

Krishna had a profound inner awakening and after this experience left his beautiful home in the mountains to share the knowledge of true life with others. He was appalled at the depravity that he found in the lowlands of India, but he never gave up on his spiritual help to his people. Many were changed by his very nature and by the knowledge of God that he shared. He studied astrology and science, and made many discoveries in his time through his high connections to the heavens.

Nahome, born a princess on the Isle of Isis, was a child so pure that she blessed all who passed her way. She studied closely under the Priest, Amon-Asro, and soon surpassed him in the knowledge of Creation. She was born to uplift the women on earth, to anchor purity on the earth, but many did not make use of the radiations from out of her for their benefit. She also came to serve her Lord Abd-ru-shin. Her love for her Lord protected Him and brought joy to them both. Nahome was an example to woman of joy and blessing, and also of great sacrifice and service as she descended from a very high place in order to benefit human beings.

Cassandra's very name rings truth. She was born into royal family of Troy as a lovely princess but because she was not interested in the earthly pursuits and the gossip of the court, she was shunned and ridiculed. She had the gift of prophecy and warned her father King Priam of the coming disaster to Troy, but her voice was not heard despite the correctness of her predictions. She foresaw the fall of Troy and was still hated even when all her words and deeds only spoke of kindness and help. The fall of Troy was so terrible because of the rejection of Cassandra's warnings and because of the rejection of her words of spiritual help to her people.

Miserable with her life of hedonism and superficiality, Mary of Magdala knew that there was something missing in her life. She learned of true love and happiness after her meeting with Jesus. When she heard Jesus preaching, she became a changed woman and began to spread the joy that she had found through Jesus to others.

Krishna, Nahome, Cassandra, Mary of Magdala, each one of them had a very personal relationship to God and their volition was to serve God and thereby to serve others by leading them upwards to the Light. A reader will find him or herself drawn upwards to the Light as well when he makes the effort to understand the lives of these spiritual warriors.
