This revised edition brings the story up to date, with previously unrevealed information on the peace talks, the historic power-sharing agreement of 2007 between Sinn Féin and Ian Paisley's Democratic Unionist Party, and outlines the future prospects for peace in Ireland. Here is the inside story by a journalist with unrivalled contacts who provides rare insights into the politics of the situation and the personalities of the main players. Of the earlier edition: ""This is a well-researched, literate and highly readable account that sheds much light on a subject whose shadows are continuously shifting.""-Publishers Weekly. ""A writer who knows how to lace political facts with informal detail and sometimes rude comment about the main players.""--Irish Echo
